Attorneys start new firm

Two Kansas City personal injury attorneys announced this week that they have started a new firm located near Country Club Plaza.

Samuel Wendt and Peter Goss, previously of Peterson & Associates, now constitute Wendt Goss, a “multidimensional personal injury law firm that will focus on personal injury claims and mass tort litigation,” the partners said in a press release.

Goss is the son of Harold M. Goss, president of the Kansas City firm White Goss Bowers March Schulte & Weisenfels.

The firm is located at 4510 Belleview, Suite 202, in Kansas City.
